Creating Your Own Path: Successful Transitions

For Persons With Autism

is a one-day conference being held on Friday, September 11, 2015, from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at Broadmoor Baptist Church in Madison, Mississippi. The importance of transitions for those with autism cannot be stressed enough and doesn't happen overnight. The objective of this conference is to provide parents, advocates, professionals, and people with autism the opportunity to learn about resources and evidence-based best practices regarding planning and executing successful transitions, no matter the age.

Keynote: Dr. Paul Wehman — Virginia Commonwealth University Professor of Physical Medicine, Rehabilitation and Chairman of Rehabilitation Research with a joint appointment in the Departments of Special Education and Disability Policy and Rehabilitation Counseling.

Who should attend: Anyone who works with, designs, provides supports to, or is a person with autism, such as: teachers, para-professionals, school administrators, advocates, parents, Therapists, Psychologists, Support Coordinators, Nursing Home Administrators, and Social Workers. Attendance certificates are also available. Teachers will receive at least .6 CEUs for the full-day attendance through Mississippi College at an additional cost of no more than $20.

Registration: Registration is $50, which includes admission, morning and afternoon snacks, and a lunch. Registrations will be processed by date received. Registration may be done online (tinyurl.com/autismtransition) or return the completed registration and a check or money order by the deadline date listed on the form. A limited number of attendance scholarships are available for parents/guardians of and/or persons with autism.

If you require any auxiliary aids, services, or special requirements, please contact: Teresa Johnson, Boswell Autism Services at 601-867-5000 ext. 75018.
